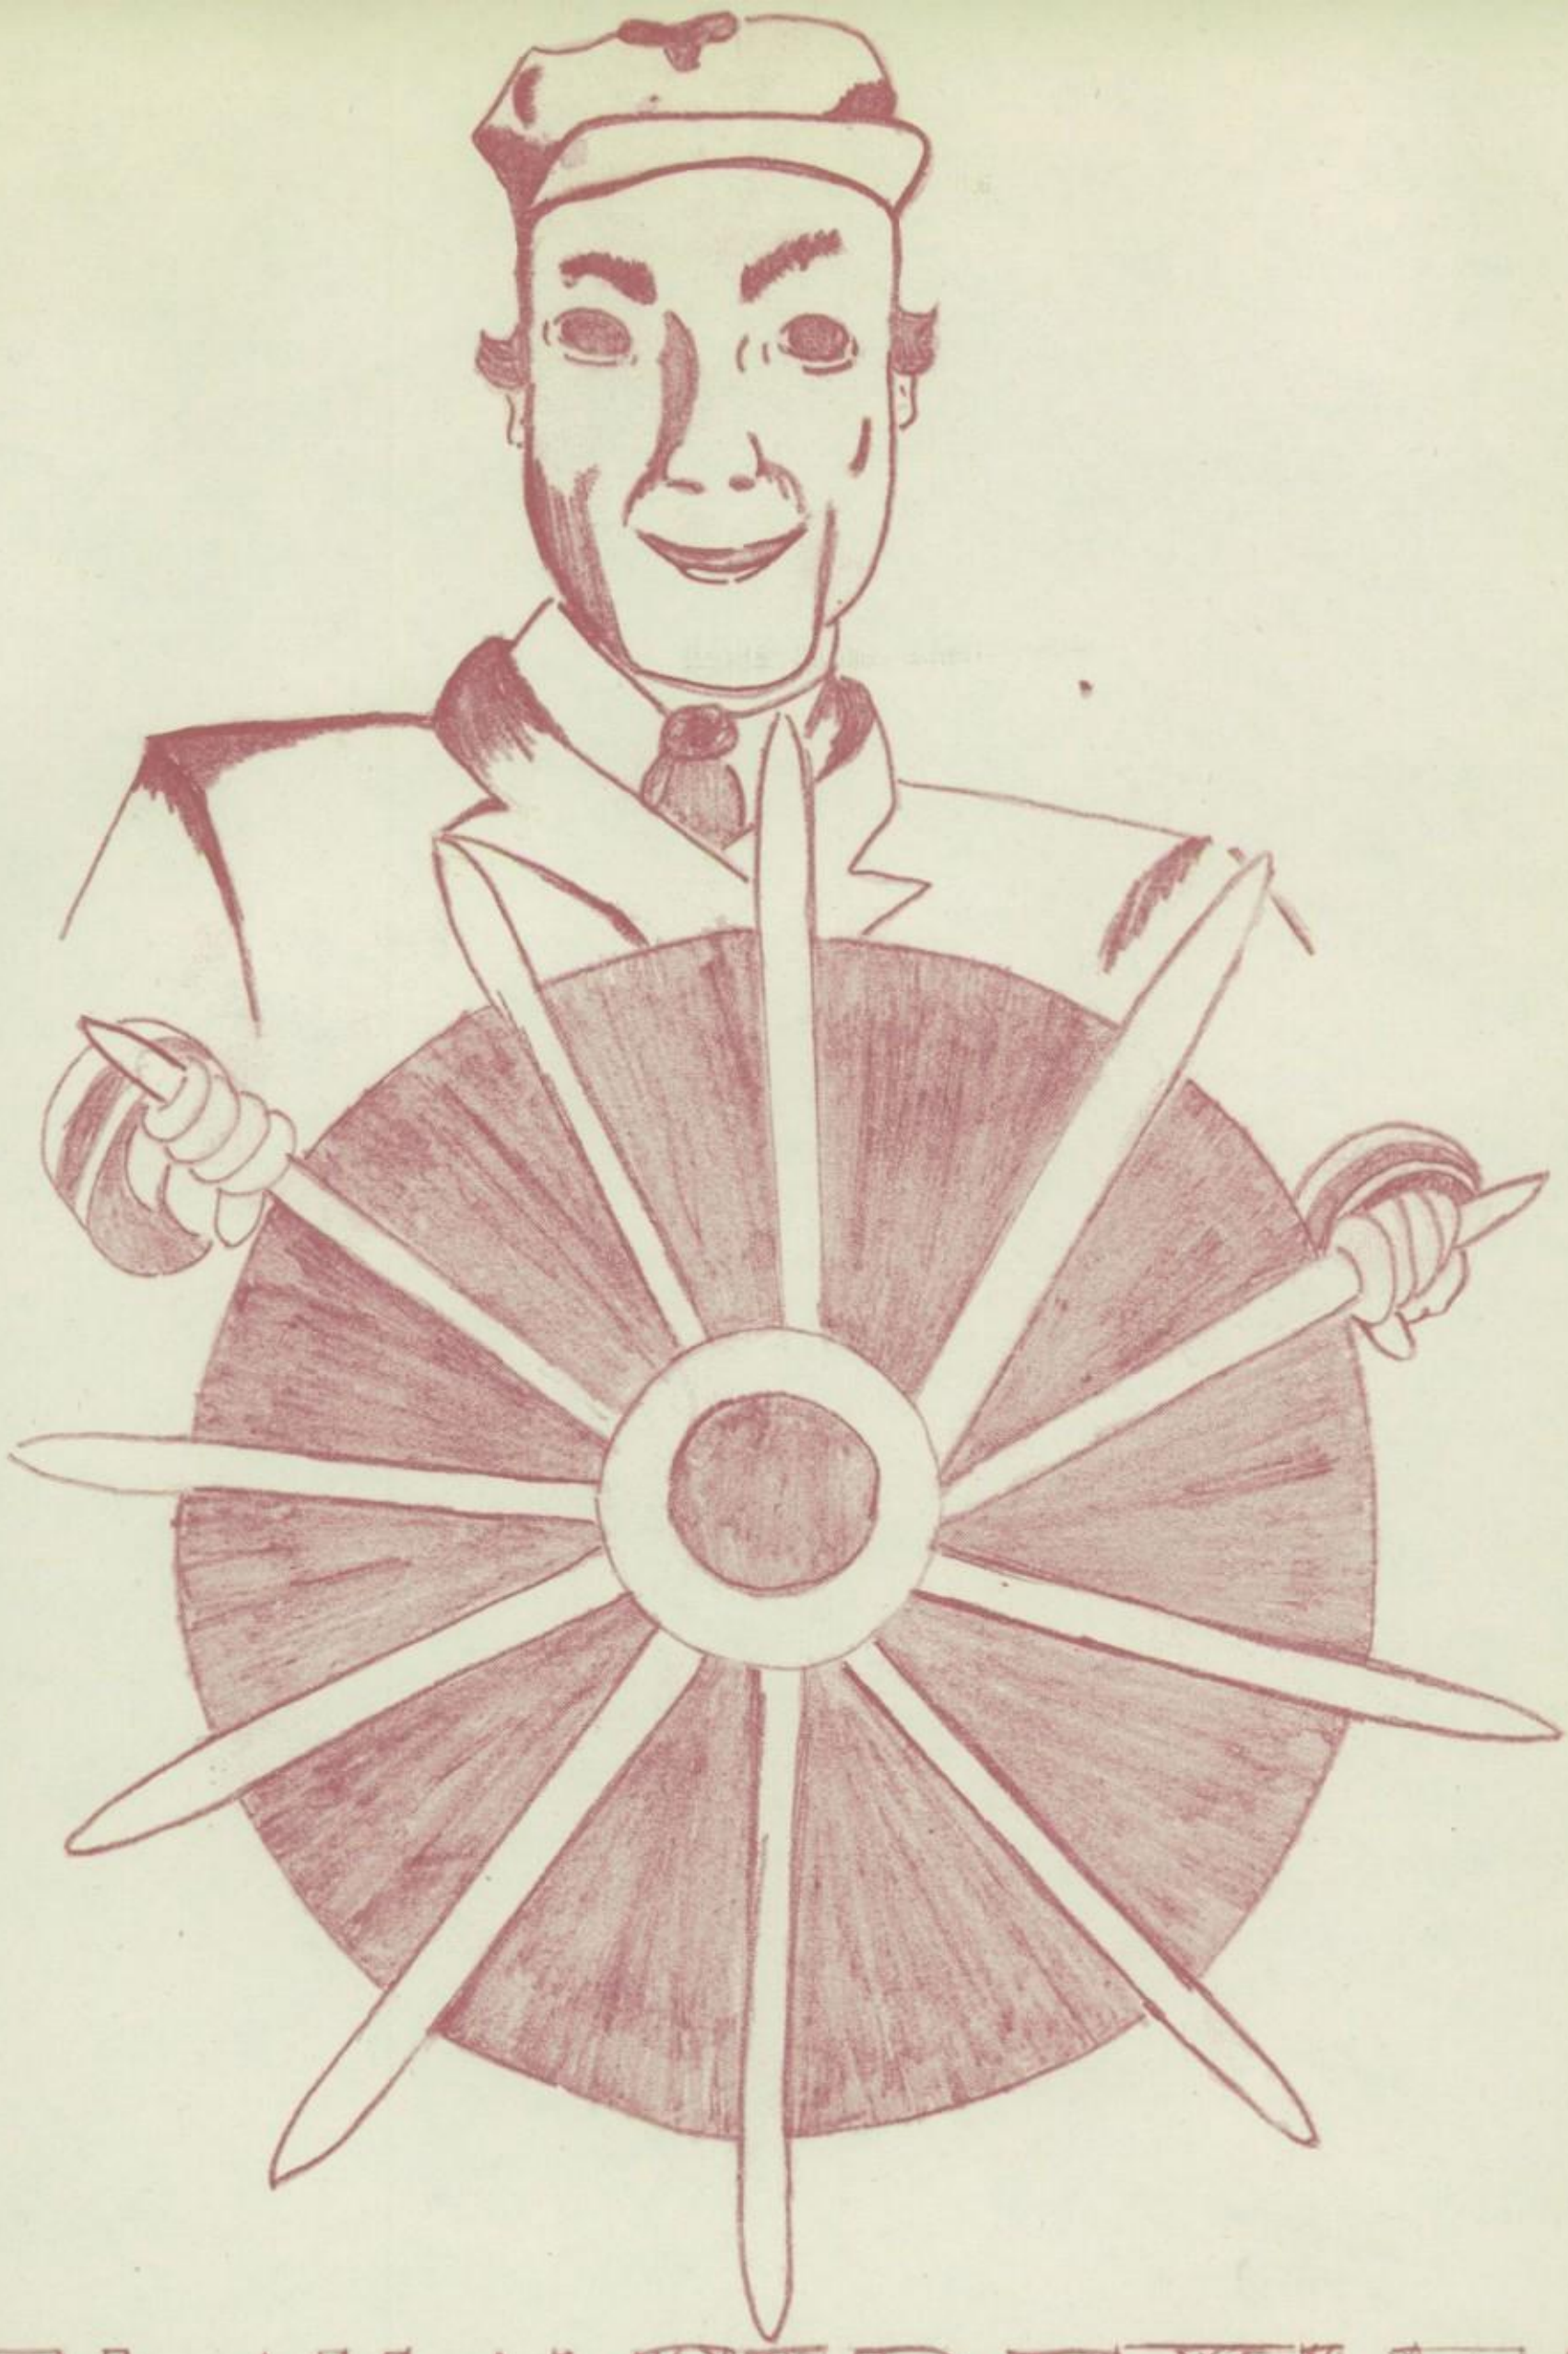
To you, the student, this book is presented in the sincere belief that it holds memories of your high school career you will ever cherish.

The Chehalem Staff

To Loran Douglas, excellent and respected principal, booster of student interests and welfare, and co-operative friend, we the staff dedicate the Chehalem of 1952.



ADMINISTRATION

PRINCIPAL
LORAN DOUGLAS

Completing his third year as principal of Newberg Union high, Loran Douglas is well-liked and respected by all who work under him. His policies of fairness and self-government, carried out with a pleasant efficiency, make him popular with students and townspeople alike.

SUPERINTENDENT
HUBERT ARMSTRONG

Heading the Newberg school system is Hubert Armstrong, superintendent of schools. His seventh year in this position, as the six preceding, has been one of harmony and co-operation, and his quiet smile and greeting are a pleasant part of Newberg high school's friendly atmosphere.

SCHOOL BOARD

SECRETARY
EDNA GILLIS

To every member of the student body Edna Gillis is sunshine and efficiency in her capacity as office secretary. Her wllingness to be of help to both students and faculty in addition to regular office work, has won her admination and respect.

VICE-PRESIDENT
DARREL JONES

PRESIDENT
LYNWOOD LUNDQUIST

SECRETARY

TREASURER
LEWIS SCHAAD

Student Council

The Student Council made an excellent record in governing our school affairs this year. Representatives from classes, clubs and home rooms met to discuss the school's problems and voted to sponsor a Halloween party, noon movies and the University Singers' concert.

Student body officers were Lynwood Lundquist, president; Darrel Jones, vice-president; Myrna Hoy, secretary; Lewis Schaad, treasurer and Dorothy Gimbel, assistant treasurer. Mr. Loran Douglas advised the council.

PRESIDENT
ALVIN CHRISTIE

Junior Class

With Alvin Christie, president; Roger Fendall, vice-president; Arlie Eide, secretary; Rose Kabusreiter, treasurer; Howard Tribbett, representative; Naomi Flaten, Jay Hockett and Charles Gilman, advisers, the junior class proved very active.

The class presented a very elaborate assembly The Styles of '52, and included in their busy schedule the annual Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom plus a Junior-Senior play, Men Are Like Streetcars.

Sophomore Class

Don Blahnik, president, led the sophomore class through a very active year. Assisting Don were Dick Jordan, vice-president; Sally Rittenhouse, secretary; Sterling Eide, treasurer; Bruce Garvin, representative; and advisers, Gretchen Geôrge and Earl Gillis.

The sophomores presented a one-act play, The Shock of His Life, an assembly and sponsored a sophomore class party, as featured activities of the year.

PRESIDENT
DON BLAHNIK

PRESIDENT
KENNETH TURNIDGE

Freshman Class

The freshman, largest class in school, started the year with a party. The class dominated the one-act play contest by walking off with the best play, Candy Goes on a Diet, and the best actress award.

Leading the class were Kenny Turnidge, president; Max Cullen, vice-president; Dorothy Hall and Neoma Jane Stone, secretaries; Betty Marks, treasurer; Luella Bauder, representative; Allan Herring, sgt.-at-arms; and Helen Johnston and Alvin Mullikin, advisers.

ACTIVITIES

Band

Among the many activities of the band this year, playing for all home football and basketball games, Christmas, March of Dimes and Spring concerts, band contest and for festivals during the summer, proved outstanding.

Heading the band this year were Bob Hinshaw, president; Howard Tribbett, vice-president; Arlene Owens, secretary-treasurer; Pat Barker, point secretary and Melvin Gilson, director.

The dance band, which played for noon and after game dances, and pep band, which played at all home basketball games, were two new departments added to the band.

DIRECTOR
MELVIN GILSON

PRESIDENT
TED DRAHN

ACCOMPANIST
JOANNE JOHNSTON

Led for the second consecutive year by Ted Drahn, president, the Newberg High School Choir has been a very active organization in our school. They presented their annual operetta, Meet Arizona, Christmas, March of Dimes and Spring concerts, sang at the Colleen Townsend Evans service, an Easter Vesper program and an Easter Sunrise service. The choir also traveled to Linfield College for the district music contest. Assisting Ted were Darrel Jones, vice-president; Elva Mae Davis, secretary; Verna Attrell, treasurer and Erma McBride, robe chairman.

Special mention should go to both Melvin Gilson, director, and Joanne Johnston, accompanist. Mr. Gilson has been at Newberg for three years and has proved himself a hard working and able director of our music department. Joanne has accompanied the choir for three years and has been a great help to Mr. Gilson and the choir, especially at operetta time.

Girls' Glee Club

Primarily a training group for choir, girls' glee club has replaced a mixed chorus of last year. Participation in the Christmas, March of Dimes and Spring concerts plus the district music contest has resulted in a busy year for this group which met every day during 6th period. Although open to all girls, the sophomore class boasted all but one member, a junior, this year, and was led by India Richardson, president, Nancy Adams, secretary, and Carol Parrett, accompanist.

National Honor Society

Sworn in at a formal initiation held each year before the student body, members of this society are chosen upon the qualifications of character, scholarship, leadership and service.

Officers were Jack Crater, president; Layne Anspach, vice-president; Verna Attrell, secretary; with Naomi Flaten as faculty adviser.

Compiling the honor roll and selling candy at the junior-senior and student body plays kept the Honor Society busy.

Quill And Scroll

Junior and senior journalism students compose the Ben Hur Lampman chapter of Quill and Scroll at Newberg. Members are chosen for outstanding journalistic abilities or other creative work in this field. Joanne Johnston served as president with Mrs. Mercedes Paul as adviser. Annually they print the "Tiger's Guide."

Boosters

Led by President Mary Hoover, Vice-President Dorothy Bell, Secretary Joyce Rahier, Treasurer Lenora Zemke and Mary Andersen, adviser, the Booster Girls sold apples, hats, pencils, and pompons, decorated goal posts for football games, cleaned the school trophy case and prepared skits for pep assemblies. These fourteen girls, chosen for appearanc, scholarship, personality and school spirit, sponsored banquets for the football and basketball teams and a picnic for the track, wrestlers and baseball teams to make this a very active year.

Homecoming Court

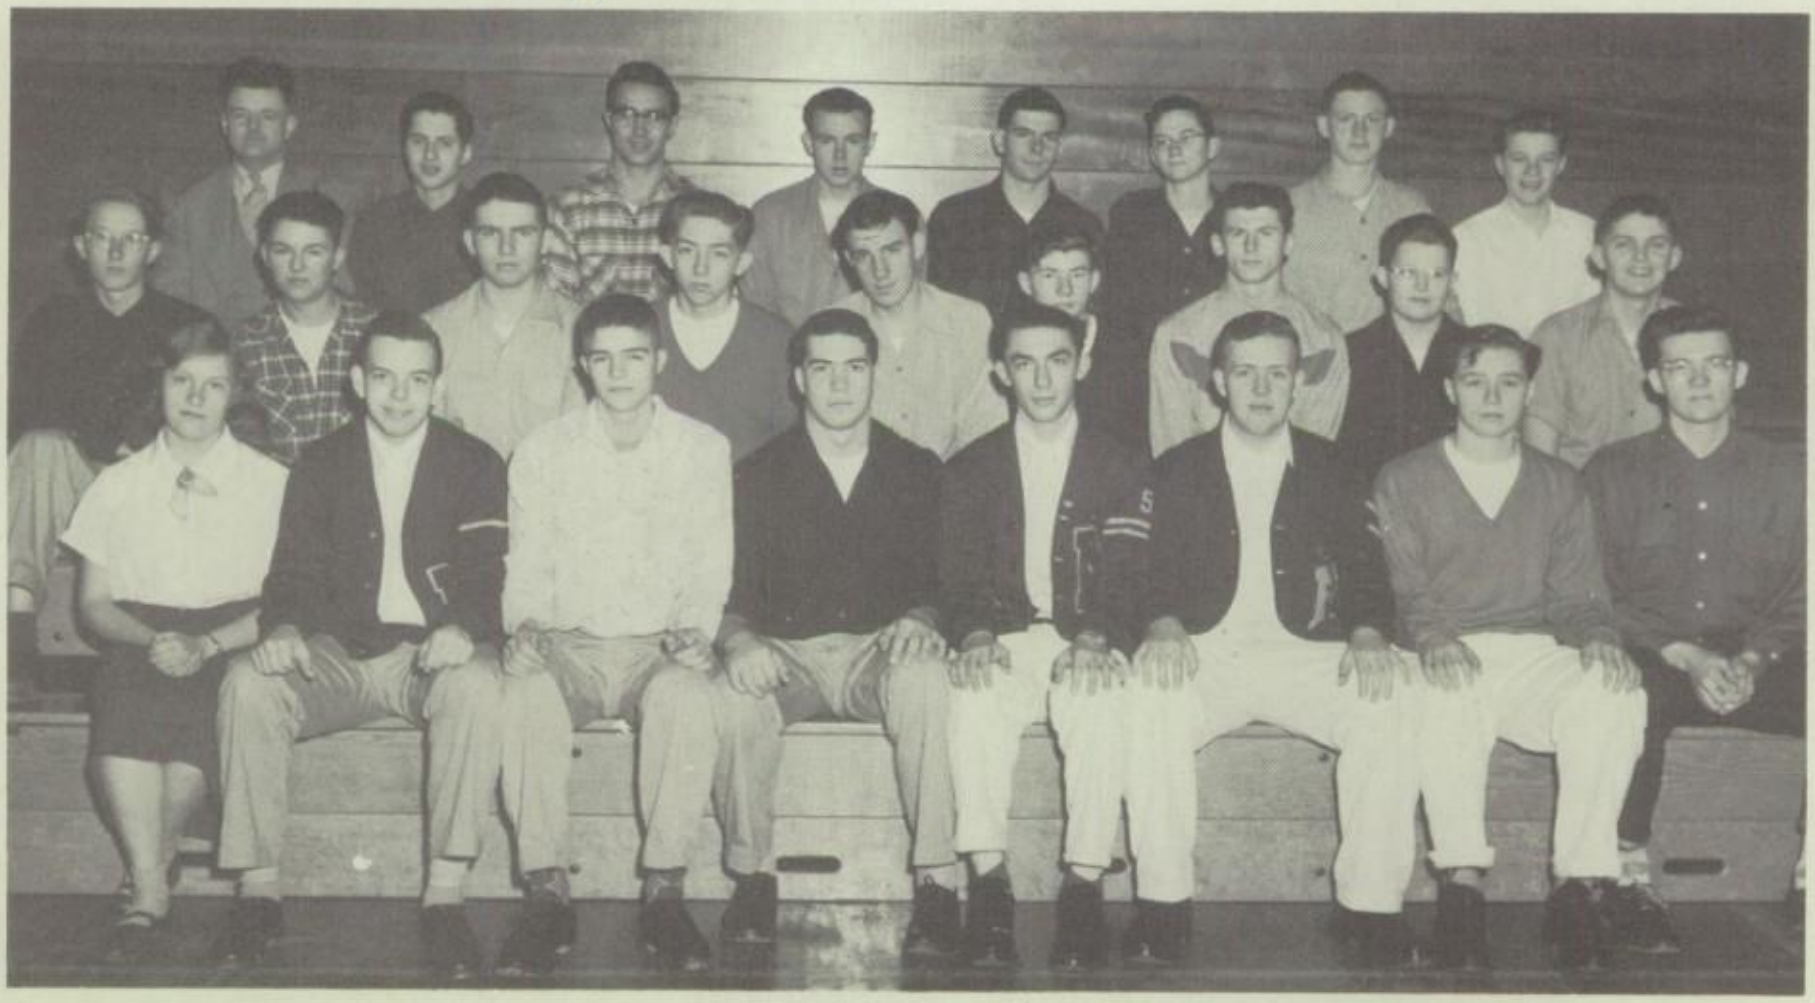
Chosen to rule over Homecoming at the McMinnville game were Queen Erma McBride and Princesses Kathleen Bench, Ellen Wilkins, Elva Mae Davis and Verna Attrell. The court was chosen from the senior class by the football team and the queen was elected by a student body vote.

Rod And Gun Club

The 1951-52 school year saw the Junior Rod and Gun Club grow to 50 active members, the largest ever recorded at Newberg. Michael Jackets led the group as president; with able asssitance from Alvin Christie, vice-president; Frank Buck, secretary-treasurer; and Donald Thompson, adviser.

Safety and better sportsmanship, goals of the club, were practiced in activities of the past year, including rifle shooting, program meetings and camping and fishing trips.

Camera And Projector Club



For the students who rode this year's showboat and like photography, the Camera and Projector Club provided an ideal outlet. They learned how to run the school's projectors and helped with the noon movies.

At the helm of the club was Dave Servine, president; assisted by Burnell Krager, vice-president; Lewis Schaad, camera manager; Jack Herring, projector manager; and Layne Anspach, dark-room manager.

Y-Teens

CAMELLIA COURT

Princesses June Reighley, Donna Bales, Myrna Hoy, Rose Kabusreiter and Sue Ann Adkins. The queen was chosen at the Camellia dance.

Y-TEENS CABINET

Janice Boyes, Barbara Olson, Carol Newton, Sue Ann Adkins, and Marjorie Christie.

Social responsibility, health, arts, religion and to grow in friendship with people of all races, religions and nationalities are the ideals of the Y-Teens organization. Sponsored during the year were a swimming party, dances, food sales and a spring formal.

Officers of the group were Carol Newton, president; Janice Boyes, vice-president; Sue Ann Adkins, secretary; Margie Christie, treasurer; and Barbara Olson, adviser.

Future Homemakers of America

The Future Homemakers of America is an organization for girls who are completing or have completed a course in home economics. The purpose of the club is to further an interest in homemaking.

Officers including Doris King, president; Dorothy Meyers, vice-president; Emily Meyers, secretary; Arlie Eide, treasurer; and Helen Bixen, historian; Mrs. A. J. Sather, chapter mother; and Mrs. Amy Sperry, adviser; oversaw the FHA District Conference which was held in Newberg with Dorothy Meyers, acting chairman. Members served at many banquets including the FFA Parent-Son Banquet and sponsored an Easter breakfast for the faculty.

Future Farmers Of America

The FFA sponsored a very successful parent-son banquet this year with over 250 in attendance. The parliamentary team placed first in both the district and intersectional contests with Lynwood Lundquist taking first at the district speaking contest. Twenty-three members exhibited at various fairs where they took the following honors: state swine herd plaque for the 5th consecutive year, banner for herdsmanship for the second consecutive year, second place at the Clackamas Fair, third at the Deschutes Fair, and a first at the Pacific International Livestock Exhibition was won by the livestock judging team.

The organization was led by Gerald Taylor, president; Lynwood Lundquist, vice-president; Roger Fendall, secretary; Mickey Schwinkendorf, treasurer; Ted Bennett, recorder; and Don Sheridan, sentinel. Mr. Howard Bennett served as adviser.

Tigerettes

Tigerettes, junior and senior girls only, had many activities this year, including the Red Cross and March of Dimes drives, food sale, visit to the children's home, and the May Day festival.

Officers this year were Margarette DeSersa, president; Lenora Zemke, vice-president; Cora Lou Daniels, secretary; and Janie Shuey, treasurer. The group was advised by Margaret Tangen.

May Day Festival

Always one of our most beautiful ceremonies, we on the NUHS Showboat look forward to May Day, a festival sponsored by the Tigerettes. As the court had not been chosen when the Chehalem went to the printers this space has been provided to enter their names and positions.

Future Business Leaders of America

The Future Business Leaders of America had a very active year under the leadership of Joan Reboul, president; Mary Alice Gray, vice-president; Eileen Zimbrick, secretary; Dolly Walker, treasurer; Rachel King, historian and Mary Andersen, adviser.

The purpose of the club is to promote interest in business occupations and is open to students having earned two credits in commercial subjects. The activities of the club in addition to their yearly project of looking for opportunities for employment in surrounding towns included a skating party, assembly and a trip to the Northwestern School of Commerce.

Tiger Knights

Keeping order in the halls, assemblies, cafeteria and any other place they are needed is the task of the Tiger Knights, in addition to fire drills and sponsoring an assembly.

The Tiger Knights were led this year by Joe Plews, captain; Sam Scott, lieutenant; Hugh Armstrong, junior lieutenant; Elvin Syversen, secretary-treasurer and Floyd Rister, advised the group.

Girls League

Open to all girls at NUHS is Girls' League, a club organized to teach leadership and sociability to its members. Activities carried out by the girls of the student body this year included a Hi-Day, a faculty tea, mother-daughter dessert, twirp week terminated by a date dance, a knave of hearts dance, a girls' league week, and an annual ssembly. Members comprising the cabinet were Dorothy Bell, president; Dorothy Meyers, vice-president; Joanne Johnston, secretary; Margie Puckett, corresponding secretary; Margarette DeSersa, treasurer; with Lola Diamond and Wilda Tucker acting as co-scrap book editors. Betty Barner advised the organization.

Boys League

Sponsoring assemblies and panel discussions were the main activities of the Boys' League, the club to which every boy at NUHS automatically belongs. This organization helps to iron out any problems the boys might have and tends to develop leadership.

Leading the club this year were George McAdams, president; Allyn Schwinkendorf, vice-president; and Alvin Christie, secretary-treasurer. Representatives were Allan Herring, Bob Phillips, Doyle Litfin, John Robertson, Grant McCulloch, Harry McAdams, Elvin Syversen and Jack Herring. Earl Gillis advised the group.

Library and Office Staff

These are the actual "bookworms" of the school. The girls in the library work quietly and efficiently, without fanfare, to keep the books and magazines rolling while the office blood hounds manage the archives of student records.

Mrs. Gillis is the guiding force in the office, assisted by Mrs. DeBoer, and Mrs. Frost in the library.

Pep Staff

Leading the yells this year were Carl Newton, Harry Davis, Judy Palmer, Bruce Garvin and Sally Rittenhouse. Song queens were Rose Kabusreiter, Sue Ann Adkins and Janie Shuey.

Sally Rittenhouse was president of the group; Judy Palmer, representative; Carol Newton, speaker; and Ruth Shipler, adviser.

Among their activities were the TYV Jamboree yell contest, sponsoring after game dances and leading the yells at all games.

Masque Club

ADVISER
FLORENCE HUCKLEBERRY

The Masque club one of the few clubs in school that is open to the entire student body is a dramatic organization. This year it was responsible for the annual one-act play contest, student body play and all publicity for other plays. Heading the club for 1952 were Burnell Krager, president; Joe Plews, vice-president; and Gayle Seidel, secretary-treasurer; Florence Huckleberry was the adviser.

PRESIDENT
BURNELL KRAGER

Student Body Play

Cast members have not been chosen as we go to press, for the student body play, Green Valley. Given in April, this play featured unusual stage effects and a cast depicting living people as wellas people returned from the dead.

Thespians

Thespians is an honorary organization for students outstanding in dramatics and is advised by Florence Huckleberry. Election of officers was dispensed with this year due to small membership.

A Quiet Home Wedding, a one-act play, was presented by the ten active members as a benefit play for the March of Dimes.

One-Act Play Contest

Freshman Class

The freshman play, Candy Goes on a Diet, brought two honors this year to the class. Neoma Jane Stone walked off as best actress, and Cora Cloepfil, student director, was awarded best director award. The play was concerned with the trials and temptations of a young girl driven by jealousy, to diet. Leads were played by Neoma Jane Stone, and Max Mesplay.

Sophomore Class

The Shock of His Life produced by sophomores, also brought one of its members an award—that of best actor which Bruce Garvin claimed. Myrna Hoy, student director, guided the cast through the story of a man whose yearly medical check-up proved more than he could bear. Sterling Eide played the misled father who confused telephone messages as a diagnosis of his state of health.

Junior Class

Thrills and chills dominated the junior production of The Laughing Ghost, a mystery, coached by Jack Crater and featuring Sue Adkins and Dave Servine as leads. The play concerned a young couple whose marriage plans were threatened by a scheming relative. The juniors won first place in a window display contest held to promote publicity of the plays.

Junior - Senior Play

The junior-senior classes combined their talents this year to present Men Are Like Streetcars, a comedy coached by Florence Huckleberry. A young miss was sure she had men all figured out, and consequently she got herself, her family and friends into a series of unpleasant situations. Leads were played by Rose Kabusreiter and Harold Smith, with Margarette DeSersa, George Beaudoin and Gayle Seidel acting in supporting roles.

Stage Craft Club

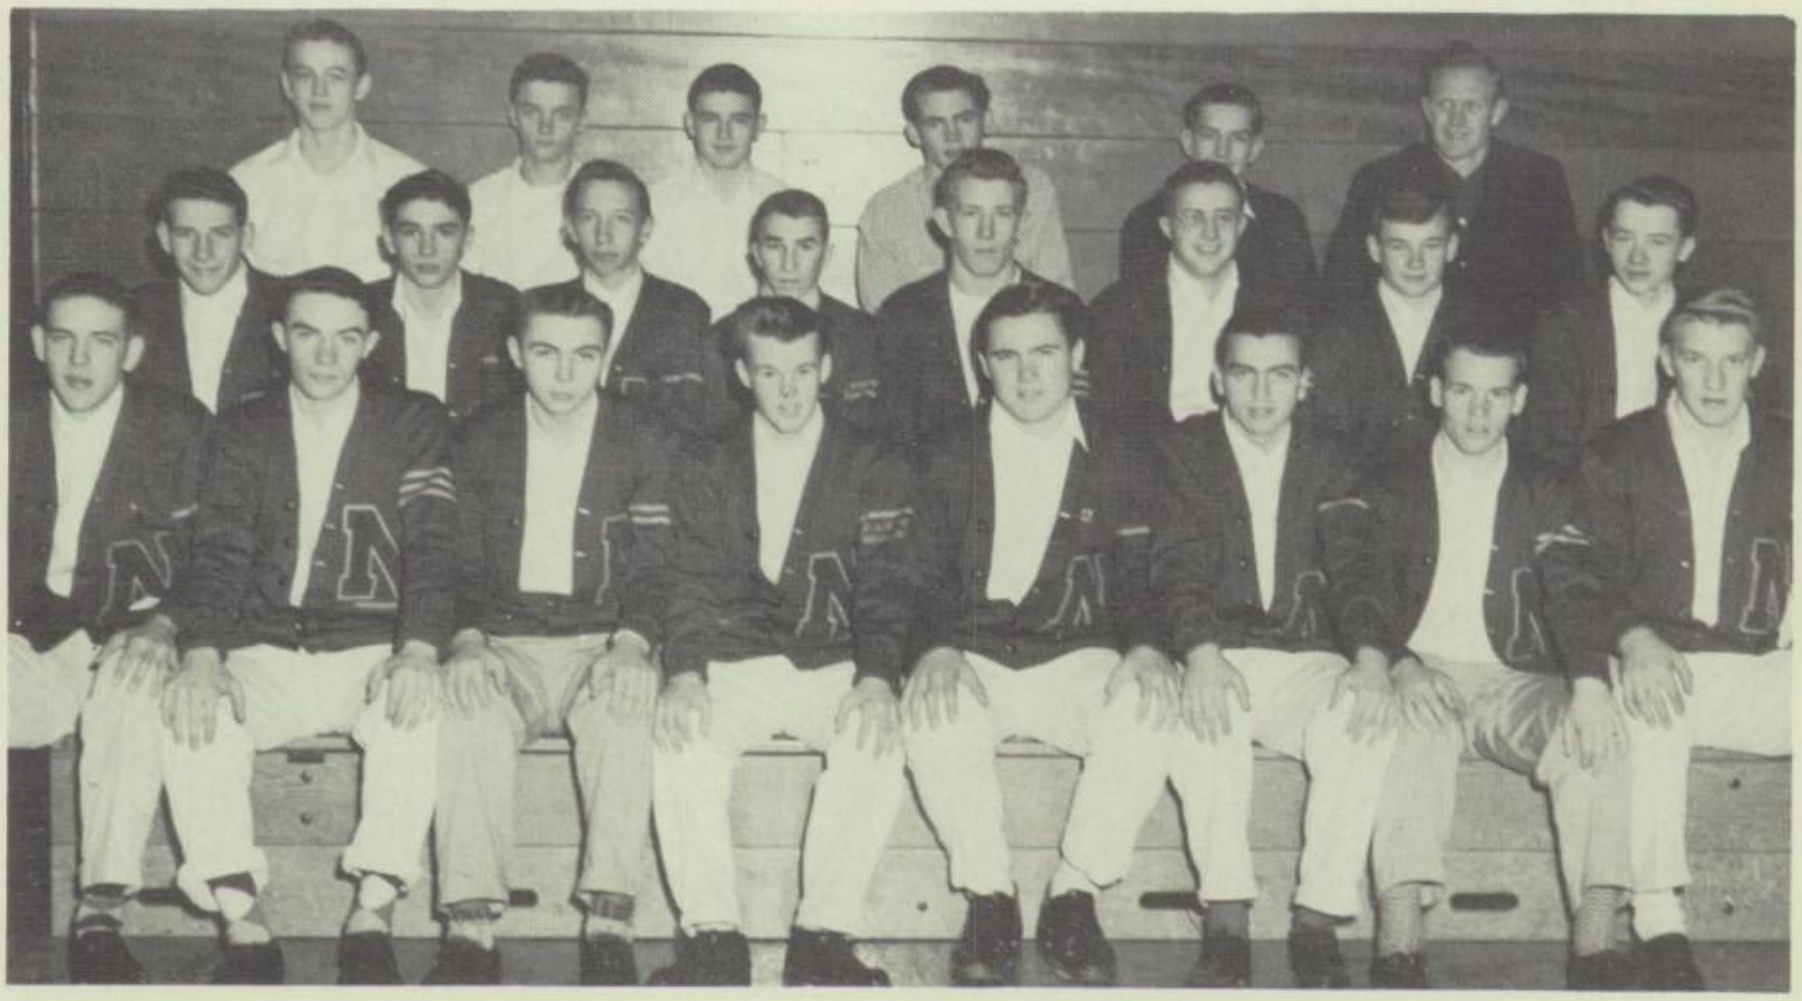
Taking care of the stage has been the purpose of the Stage Craft club, led by Everett Thompson, president; Gerald Taylor, vice-president; Emil Toedtli, secretary-treasurer; and Charles Gilman, adviser. Activities such as building sets for stage productions, building equipment, and taking care of proper stage lighting keep the club active. A limited amount of members are selected during the year after meeting certain qualifications making them eligible.

Youth For Christ

The purpose of Youth for Christ, to promote a better Christian way of life among the young people at NUHS, was carried out during the year through weekly meetings with special music and speakers, an assembly in which the movie, Counter Attack was shown, a formal banquet and a funspiration.

Gladys Turnidge served as president assisted by Dorothy Gimbel, vice-president; Betty Christenson, secretary-treasurer; Carolann Moor, reporter-representative; and Rev. H. C. Moore, adviser.

Hi-Y



To create, maintain, and extend throughout the community the high standards of Christian character are the goals of the Hi-Y.

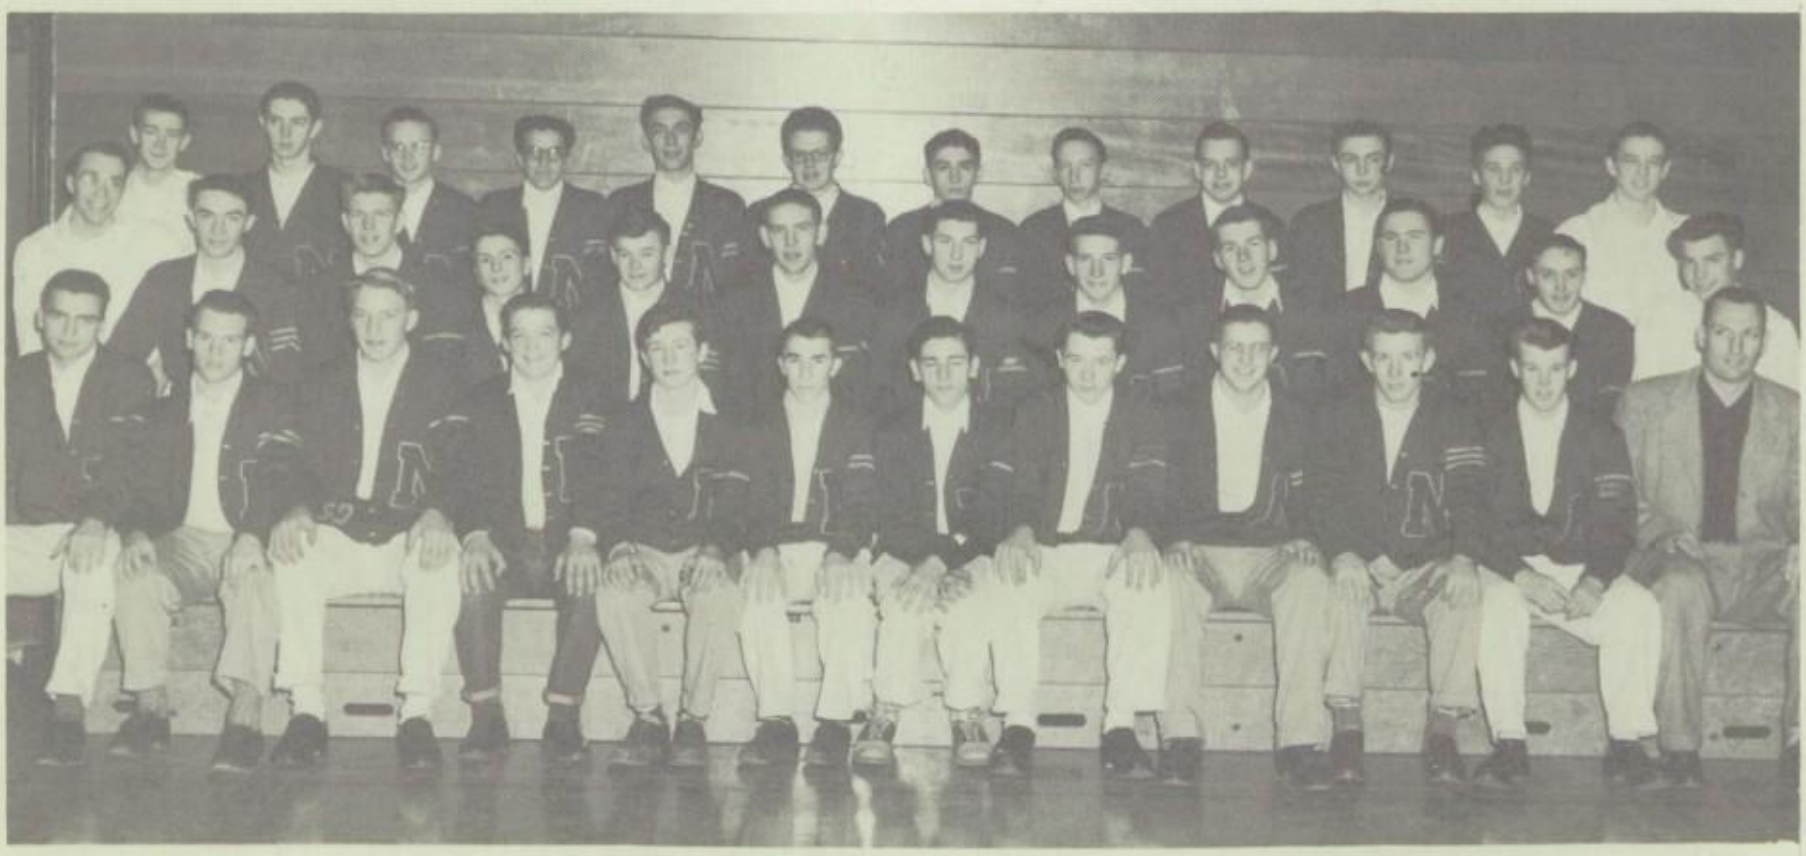
Leading the group this year were Allyn Schwinkendorf, president; Hugh Armstrong, secretary-treasurer; Robert Harriman, chaplain and Alfred Fedje, adviser.

The organization, a branch of the YMCA, Portland, sold candy at games, presented an annual assembly and went swimming as a group at the Y.

Girl's Athletic Association

The Girls' Athletic Association is an organization for athletic minded girls. The club, capably led by Phyllis Hays, president; Wilda Tucker, vice-president; Barbara Headley, secretary; June Reighley, treasurer; Pat Barker, editor; Shirley Hutchens, sgt.-at-arms; Joyce Rahier, activity chairman; and Ruth Shipler, adviser; sponsored a fun night, Homecoming, assembly, food sales, after-game dances, a beach party and a play day the past year.

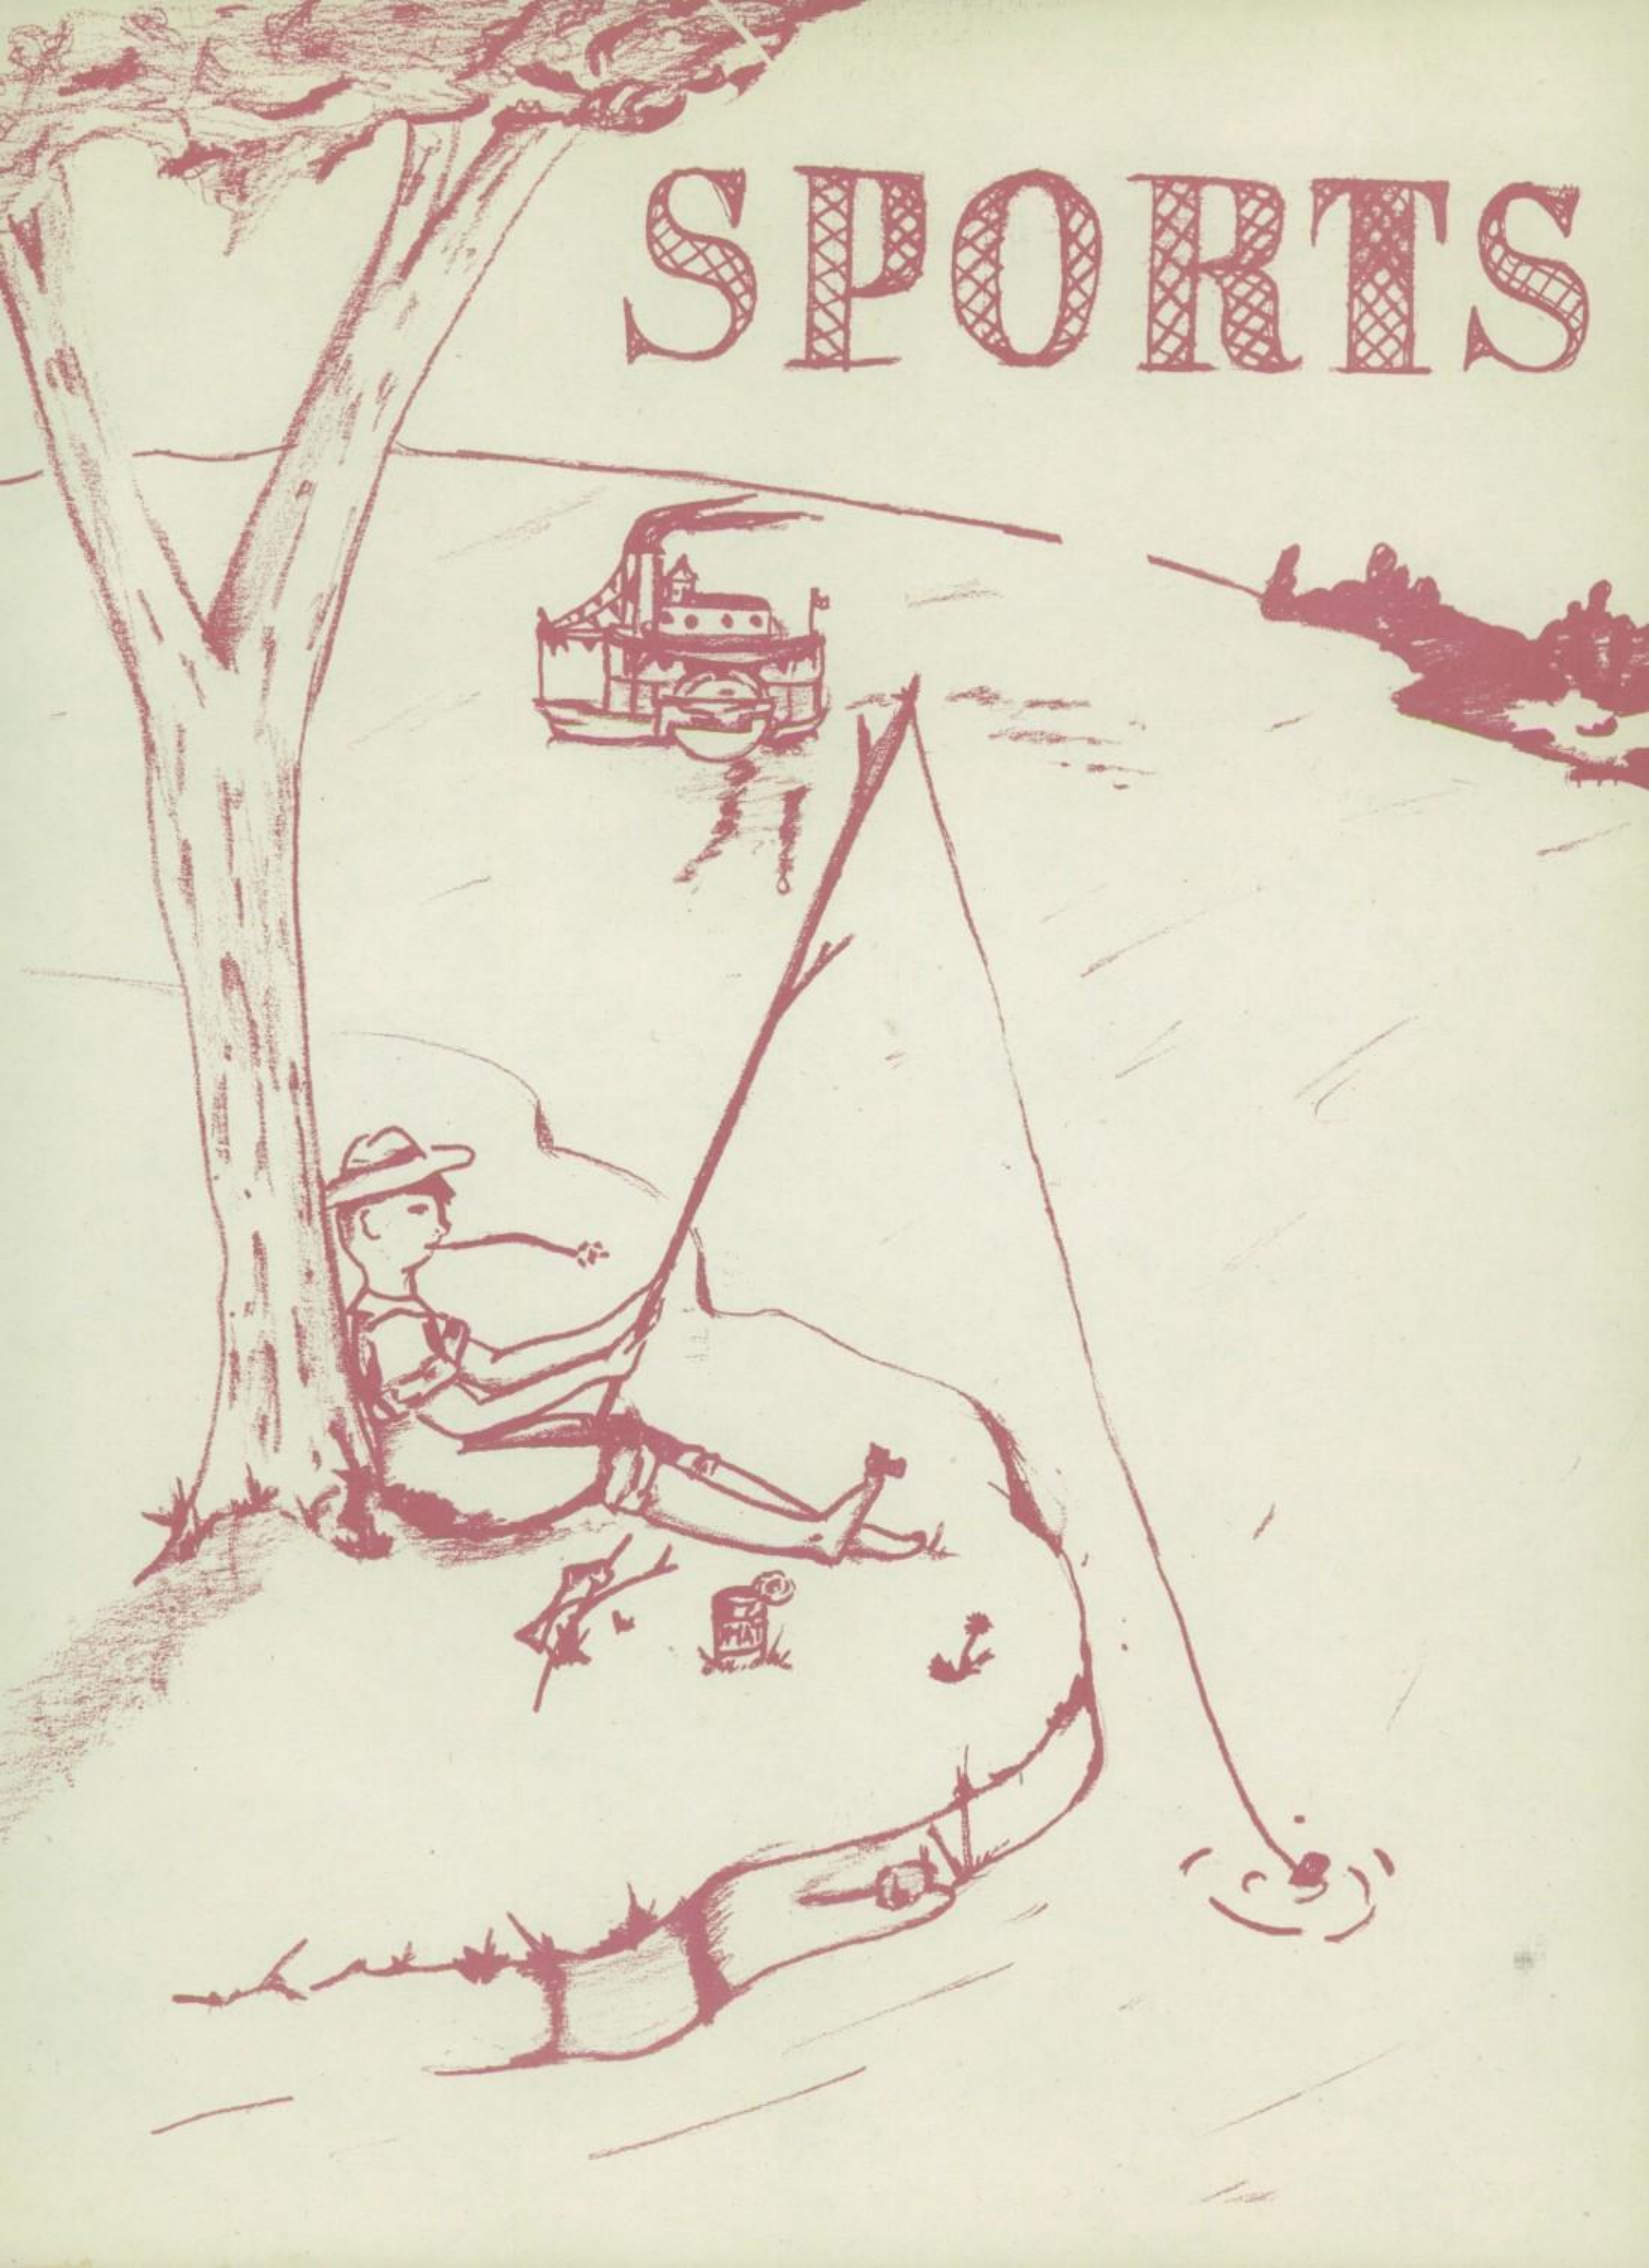
Order Of The N



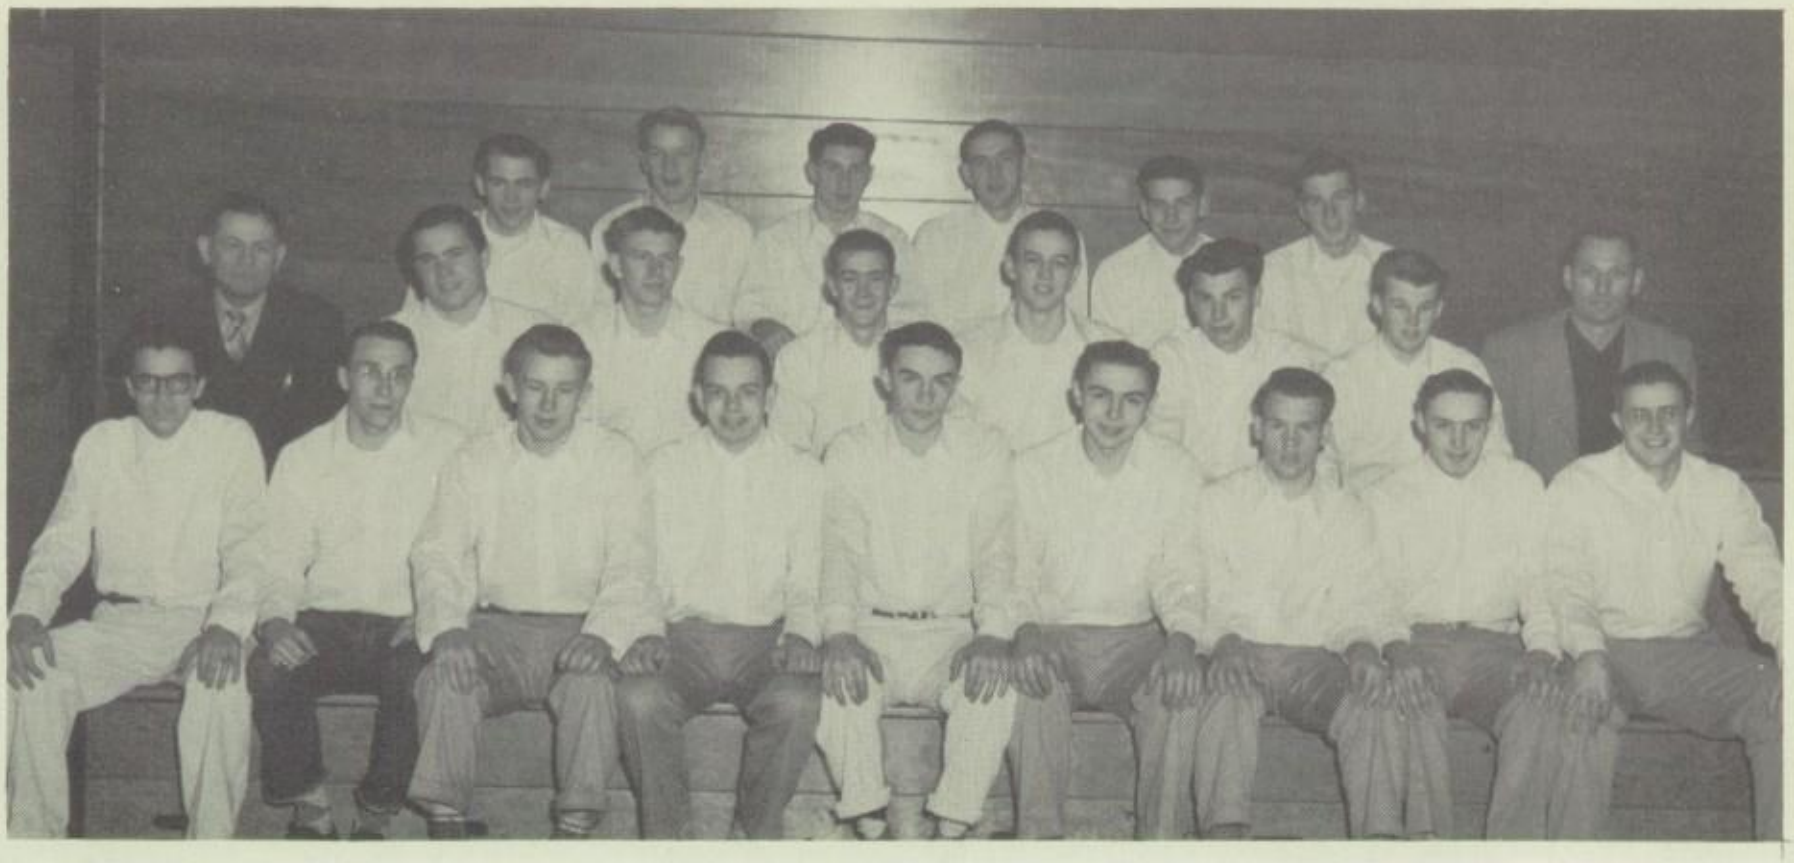
The Order of the N is an organization composed of boys who have earned a letter by showing outstanding ability in a major sport. Stationing men to control assemblies was one of their main duties and this year for the first time, they presented an assembly, at which they demonstrated football plays.

Serving as officers were Leslie Umfleet, president; Doug Umfleet, vice-president; Robert Harriman, secretary-treasurer and Ralph Davis, faculty adviser.

SPORTS



FOOTBALL



The Newberg Tigers under the leadership of their new coach, Ralph Davis, did very well considering they had only five returning lettermen and had to switch from T formation to single wing. They climaxed the season with a thrilling 14-14 tie with McMinnville. George McAdams and Robert Harriman were chosen for the TYV all star team.

Basketball

Coach "Swede" Mullikin proved that a team doesn't always have to win to give the spectators a good game. With only one returning letterman the team was handicapped, but the hoopsters always played a clean, hard fought game. Sam Scott represented the Tigers on the TYV all-star team.

The Newberg matmen under the leadership of Earl "King" Gillis enjoyed one of their most successful seasons. During the regular season they won 11 matches while losing only two. In the TYV league tournament they took first place in three weight divisions, giving them second place in the league.

The wrestlers also captured the District 2 tournament and claimed four championships; Wes Newby, 98 lb.; Doug Umfleet, 105 lb.; Les Umfleet, 148 lb.; and George McAdams, 178 lb.

Cheered on by students and townspeople who for the first time gave enthusiastic support to them, the Gillismen went on to capture third place in the annual state tournament.

Wrestling

Track

Because track has not started as the Chehalem goes to press, we have little information on the 1952 cindermen. They will be lacking the experience which was present last year, but with traditional spirit they promise to do well in their meets. Again this year, they will be under the leadership of "Swede" Mullikin.

Baseball

Prospects for the coming baseball season are very bright. With nine returning lettermen, the Newberg Tigers, under the able coaching of "Tex" Rister, are expected to turn up in the thick of the battle for the TYV league title.

Senior Class Will

I, Ilene Anderson, will my smallness to Darlene Ware.

I, Layne Anspach, will my brilliant Chinese dragon shirt to Margie Schwarzin because she is so fond of it.

I, Erma Ashby, will my ability to get good grades in choir to anyone who needs said ability next year.

I, Verna Attrell, will to Rose Kabusreiter my job as secretary of activities, last minute announcements and all.

I, Donna Bales, will Carol Newton my ability to wait for Ron.

I, Mrs. Joann Bales, will my ability to finish school, come what may, to Judy Palmer Mills.

I, George Beaudoin, being of sound mind and body, take a look at my credits, will them to some needy freshman and leave while there is still time.

I, Edene Beal Barbour, will the pleasure of decorating the school Christmas tree to Barbara DeGeer.

I, Kenneth Beebe, will my colorful shoelaces to anyone who is goofy enough to wear the fool things.

I, Dorothy Bell, leave my ability to get along well with Miss Barner to next year's Girls' league president.

We, Kathleen Bench, Janie Shuey, Ellen Wilkins and Lenora Zemke, being of sound minds do hereby bequeath our favorite saying, "We don't mess around, boy!" to the forthcoming junior girls.

I, Louise Burrill, will what little knowledge I have to my sister, Lorraine Burrill.

I, Bob Byrd, will my ability to charm Mrs. Paul to Gayle Seidel.

I, Mary Ellen Chambers, will and bequeath, my nice clean band uniform (that cost $1.15 to get cleaned) to anyone who wants to wear it.

I, Lawrence Christenson, will my ability to get excused from school for deer hunting to any interested hunter.

I, Allen Clark, will my English grades to anyone with a shovel.

I, Cora Dell Cloepfil, leave my nightmares in blue and gold to the 14 new Boosters along with my best wishes.

I, Curtis Cooper, will sell my red convertible which has a pickup of two women per block to the Sophomore's biggest hub cap, John Jacobson.

I, Jack Crater, will Butch Garvin all of the bruises he gave me during wrestling. May he rest in peace.

I, Virginia Currier, will next years' senior class to Mr. Keltner in the hope that they will be able to learn as much from him as he learned from us.

I, Cora Lou Daniel, will my locker that doesn't open no matter what, to anyone unlucky enough to get it.

I, Myron David, leave Mr. Keltner to the next year's unsuspecting social ec classes.

I, Albert David, will leave.

I, Elva Davis, will and bequeath Chuck Andrews to Rosie Kabusreiter in the hope that she takes good care of him.

I, Harry Davis, being of sound body and blank mind, will my ability to take out freshmen women to Grant McCulloch.

I, Roxanna Davis, do hereby will my band uniform, coat No. 46 and trousers No. 23 with all the coke and ice cream on it, to anyone in band next year.

I, Carolyn Dent, will to Lolla Diamond all the fun I've had in high school.

I, Margarette DeSersa, will to Phyllis Hays one tooth brush, one broken pencil, one finger and one used mat system with which to set up her Echoes ads.

I, Ted Drahn, will my hamburger making ability to any future butcher in the junior class.

I, Adiline Edelman, will my place of only girl in two classes of boys to Phyllis Ekman for future use.

I, Arlyn Ely, having walked my final steps in the hallowed halls of NUHS do leave my simply super times to anyone who wants them.

I, Marcille Fankhauser, will my ability to gain ten pounds in one school year to Mike Richardson.

I, Florence Gates, being of sound mind, hereby bequeath my ability to go to the city library to do school work to Karen Teeney, class of '56.

I, Dorothy Gimbel, will my ability to get along without boys to the freshman girls.

I, Joyce Gisi, will leave and go out into the big wide world after over three years at good old NUHS.

I, John Goodrich, being of sound mind will my ability to get along with Mr. Rister to any freshman who can't.

I, Mary Alice Gray, will and bequeath my place in band to some lucky person.

I, Aubrey Green, will my interest for knowledge of mathematics and science to LaMonte Johnson, knowing he is one who will take the most advantage of it.

I, Grace Green, will my ability to catch the bus and make it wait for my brother, Raymond Green.

I, Virginia Haag, will my great height to anyone who can use it.

I, Roy Hacker, will my ability to miss second on a hot drag to my opponent.

I, Bob Harriman, will David King my front seat in library.

I, Arnie Heimbach, will my interest in girls to anyone unlucky enough to inherit it.

I, Jack Herring, will my intelligence to anyone in the 1953 senior class who will be able to use it.

I, David Hicks, will my ability to do geometry during basegall talks by Mr. Fedje to next year's geometry students.

I, Mary Hoover, will to next year's Booster president a year's supply of "Swede's" little Mullikin pills.

I, Bob Hinshaw, being merely alive, will my broken locker, No. 44, to any lucky person who can get it. It sure is handy when you're late to class.

I, Shirley Hutchens, will Newberg Union high school to Mr. Douglas while I join my man at the University of Oregon.

I, Myrna Hoy, no longer of sound mind and body, will and bequeath to Barbara Headley the office of SB secretary and to her also I give up all the trials and tribulations that go along with it.

I, Deryl Ingraham, will that I leave NUHS the same way I entered, via the back door.

I, Michael Jackets, will to all juniors the fun of being a senior and hope you will take advantage of your chance to graduate.

I, Glenn Jaquith, will the sweat on Mr. Gilson's brow to his ear-splitting "Shut-ups" to next years' band and choir in hopes that they will benefit from them.

I, Darrel Jones, will leave to join the FBI.

I, Joanne Johnston, will to next year's choir accompanist my robe No. 13 and my ability to schedule the mumps on the same night as the Hallelujah Chorus.

I, Shirley Jungwirth, will to any patient underclassman, my locker, with the hope that he will have more success in getting it open and in thinking up tardy excuses than I.

I, Doris King, will my ability to snag a man my freshman year and hold him all through school, finally to marry him, to Margie Schwarzin.

I, Rachel King, will my ability to play basketball to my little brother, David King.

I, Burnell Krager, still being of sound mind, will to Harry McAdams a book entitled, "How to live alone and like it," and also a Betty Crocker cook book.

I, Gene Kuch, being left nothin, leave nothin.

I, Dale Long, will my smooth '38 Ford convertible to Roger Meyers so he will have a decent car to show off.

I, Lynwood Lundquist, will my ability to get along with Mr. Rister to Mike Clock.

I, Cecil Lunsford, will the seat beside Mr. Keltner's desk to someone who appreciates or understands his jokes.

I, Dorothy Meyers, leave the good times I had cooking and serving meals for everyone, to any underclassmen who is willing to accept it.

I, Gene Miller, will to Susan DeBusk my artistic abilities in hopes that she can find time to use them.

I, Frances Moad, will my ability to not understand what the teacher's talking about to some poor unsuspecting freshman.

I, George McAdams, will my ability to get into trouble to anyone who wants it.

I, Erma McBride, will nuthin to nobody. I will just leave in a hurry.

I, Alvin McCabe, being of sound mind and body, will my ability to skip classes without getting caught to Pat Barker who is bound to do pretty well.

I, Bob McIntyre, am willing.

I, Cleo Nelson, will one of my many hair styles to some junior girl who's lonely.

I, Lila Newman will my good grades to Lowell Newman.

I, Martin Nicklous, as of the day I graduate, will my ability to skip classes and mar tables to Garth Edner.

I, Don Petrie, will to Grant McCulloch, Joe Plews' ability to get along with Mr. Gilson.

I, Jennie Phillips, will to my brother, Bob Phillips, my ability to talk in library.

I, Joe Plews, will to Dick and Potts everything I have in high school if I'm lucky enough to get out.

I, Margie Puckett, will counterfeit air mail stamps to Arlie Eide, pleasant moments in Boosters to Carol Newton and best wishes to underclassmen.

I, Joyce Rahier, will to the next year's seniors my ability to get along with the underclassmen.

I, Donald Randol, will my seat in social ec to anyone with the condition they study very hard.

I, Joan Reboul, being of sound mind, hereby will my cast off Mac boys to Sally Simmons and Murel Taylor.

I, Calvin Reed, will my crutches to Grant McCulloch.

I, Allyn Schwinkendorf, being of sound mind, am going to take it with me.

I, Eldora Schaad, will my ability to stay away from boys to Margie Schwarzin.

I, Lewis Schaad, arriving with nothin and acquiring a headache, will it to any junior who also becomes a senior.

I, Jennie Shepley, will my ability to sleep through only half the social ec classes to Barbara DeGeer.

I, Jennie Shepley, will my long blonde hair to anyone who likes to stay up till all hours brushing and pin curling.

I, Ed Sherburne, will to Harry McAdams all of my knowledge in order that he may also become a great senior.

I, Marcheta Smith, will to my sister, Lucille, my ability to stick to one fellow.

I, Mary Sorensen, will and bequeath my ability to make my little sister angry to any underclassman who may also have little sisters.

I, Lloyd Sovey, will being eighth from the bottom of the senior class to Hugh Armstrong.

I, Betty Stevens, will my ability to get along with Mr. Keltner to some poor junior.

I, Elvin Syversen, as of May 29, leave Leslie Umfleet, "my partner in crime," to Janet Eide.

I, Sam Scott, will to the unlucky member of next year's track squad, who will be running the 440, the butter flies that I used to get before each race.

I, Don Sheridan, leave to the junior class the next school year! "Have fun"

I, Larry Steele, will my ability to find wild women to some freshman who hasn't already got one.

I, Gerald Taylor, will if you will let me.

I, Thetter Beeson Stretch, will to my sister, Louise, my ability to get out of classes and my ability to enjoy myself even in class when the teacher is talking.

I, Everett Thomson, will my chair in social ec to anyone crazy enough to take it.

I, Gary Trinklein, will my ability to be absent to Lee Staefen.

I, Les Umfleet, will the hair on my chest to my brother, Doug.

I, Betty Van Dehey, will to Arlie Eide my chair and table in social ec so she can catch up on sleep lost on week-ends.

I, Dolly Walker, will my ability to get excused absences to anyone who wants to skip school.

I, Mary Williams, will my ability to get along with the teachers to Barbara Williams.

I, Eileen Zimbrick, will to some poor junior my seat in social ec and commercial law.

I, Phyllis Zimbrick, will my ability to keep quiet to Sally Simmons and Murel Taylor.
